Attorney Brian Richichi Joins Krokidas & Bluestein's Civil Litigation Practice

July 20, 2020 (Boston, MA) – Krokidas & Bluestein is proud to announce the addition of Attorney Brian Richichi to its general civil litigation practice. Mr. Richichi will work with the firm's public, private, and not-for-profit clients.

Brian comes to Krokidas & Bluestein from Hogan Lovells, where he represented clients in matters relating to commercial litigation, consumer protection, and civil rights. Prior to that, Brian was with Davis Polk & Wardwell, where he represented clients in matters including corporate litigation, securities litigation, and global regulatory enforcement and investigations.

"We are excited to have Brian join our strong team of attorneys as we expand our general and employment litigation practice," says Vincent Pisegna, head of litigation at Krokidas & Bluestein. "Brian brings important, high-level experience and a comprehensive understanding of the litigation process, which will enhance our practice and build upon our success."

A resident of Somerville, Mr. Richichi earned his J.D. from New York University School of Law, where he graduated cum laude, and holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Language and Literature from Haverford College in Pennsylvania.
