“Everything you Need to Know to Run Your Charity Well!”

ATTORNEY BOB GRIFFIN PRESENTING AT NONPROFITS SEMINAR SPONSORED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL’S OFFICE -- DIVISION OF PUBLIC CHARITIES

Date: Friday, June 6, 2008, Westford Regency, Westford, MA

We are pleased to announce that Bob Griffin was asked to present at the Attorney General’s Spring 2008 Conference on the topic of “Good Governance/Dealing with Crises.”

The Seminar agenda and bios are attached to this communication. In addition, the Website description is as follows: “Learn about forms and filing, get tips on fundraising, grant writing and collaboration, learn more about reading and interpreting financial statements, be properly prepared for crises, and hear the latest views from the IRS. Speakers will include experts from non-profit management and financial fields, the IRS, as well as Attorney General Martha Coakley. Officers, trustees, directors, and senior staff of charities are encouraged to attend.”

Bob’ session is described as follows: “Bad things do happen to the best of organizations. This session will discuss best governance practices and how to respond to incidents of malfeasance or misfeasance in the operation of a NPO from the perspectives of both internal and external audiences. Real life examples will be described and discussed.”

For further information concerning the seminar, including registration information, please visit the Attorney General’s website at
