

KROKIDAS & BLUESTEIN
ATTORNEYS

UPCOMING SEMINAR

WHEN NON-PROFITS COOPERATE AND COLLIDE: NON-PROFIT CORPORATE AFFILIATIONS

Wednesday, May 8, 2013 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM
Boston Bar Association - 16 Beacon Street, Boston, MA

On Wednesday, May 8, 2013 the Boston Bar Association's continuing legal education program will host "When Non-Profits Cooperate and Collide: Non-Profit Corporate Affiliations". Krokidas & Bluestein partner Elka Sachs will moderate the multidisciplinary panel discussions.

The program will address the different affiliation techniques used by non-profits, the creation, operation and dissolution of for-profit subsidiaries, the benefits and pitfalls of corporate membership relationships among nonprofit organizations, and the fiduciary and liability implications of such relationships. The panel discussions will focus on the education, healthcare, cultural and real estate sectors.

The link below provides additional information about the program and registration:

<https://www.bostonbar.org/membership/events/event-details?ID=11528>