UPCOMING MCLE PROGRAM FOR NON-PROFITS

How to Start & Run a Non-Profit

Legal roadmap to launch your client's vision

We thought the following conference sponsored by the Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) would be of particular interest to non-profit leaders and board members. Krokidas & Bluestein partner, Elka Sachs, will be chairing the program.

How to Start & Run a Non-Profit: Legal roadmap to launch your client's vision

Tuesday, September 27, 2016

9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

MCLE Conference Center

Ten Winter Place, Boston

Nonprofits are typically formed by dedicated people interested in making a positive impact on their communities – who turn to lawyers and accountants for assistance in transforming vision into reality. In this new program, learn the steps that lawyers can take to ensure that their nonprofit clients are formed with solid foundations, policies, and systems to sustainably achieve their goals. Bring your questions to join the dialogue!
