

KROKIDAS & BLUESTEIN LLP

ANNOUNCEMENT

ATTORNEY ALLISON LENNON (BELANGER)

SELECTED BY THE BOSTON BAR ASSOCIATION AS AN EMERGING PUBLIC INTEREST LEADER

Krokidas & Bluestein is pleased to announce that Attorney Allison Lennon (Belanger) will be among 42 attorneys participating in the Boston Bar Association’s Public Interest Leadership Program (PILP) this year. Identified as future leaders of the Boston legal community, participants will undergo extensive leadership and professional development training, learning from leaders in Boston’s public and private service sectors.

The Boston Bar Association (BBA) is a nonprofit, voluntary membership organization of nearly 13,000 attorneys drawn from private practice, corporations, government agencies, legal aid organizations, the courts, and law schools. The BBA’s mission is to advance the highest standards of excellence for the legal profession, facilitate access to justice, foster a diverse and inclusive professional community, and serve the community at large.

“As a firm, we are enormously committed to the larger community; our clients include some of the region’s most effective nonprofits, and our attorneys volunteer in a number of capacities,” noted co-managing partners Vince Pisegna and Paul Holtzman. “We have been so impressed with Allison’s longstanding commitment to use her considerable legal skills in a way that supports the community. We are confident that she will make the most of this program and Greater Boston will be the beneficiary.”

In her practice, Allison represents nonprofit, health care, and social service organizations and charter schools on a variety of legal issues. She joined the firm in 2016 after graduating from law school.

Ms. Lennon is a 2013 graduate of the University of Albany and earned her law degree from Northeastern University School of Law in 2016. She lives in Medford.
