ANNOUNCEMENT

KROKIDAS & BLUESTEIN CONGRATULATES
JILL BRENNER MEIXEL & SHERYL HOWARD
ON THEIR PROMOTIONS TO PARTNER

JILL BRENNER MEIXEL & SHERYL HOWARD

Jill Brenner Meixel has significant experience litigating disputes on behalf of individuals, for-profit and non-profit entities in commercial real estate, employment, and general litigation matters. Jill is admitted to practice in Massachusetts, the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Jill has been named a Massachusetts Rising Star by Boston Magazine four times, and was named one of B'nai B'rith Housing's Gen2Gen Rising Stars in 2013. Jill recently provided pro bono legal assistance on insurance coverage issues to the Boston Bar Association's Marathon Assistance Project and will be one of the recipients of the President's Award at the BBA Law Day dinner in May. She previously assisted the New England Innocence Project, which aims to exonerate wrongly convicted inmates through the use of DNA technology.

Sheryl Howard represents for-profit, non-profit and public clients in a variety of transactions, with a concentration in real estate and tax matters. Sheryl's practice includes advising schools and universities, health and human services providers, and small businesses regarding tax exemption and corporate governance issues.

Sheryl was named a Massachusetts Rising Star by Boston Magazine every year from 2005 through 2013, and she received the Robert B. Fraser Award for Pro Bono Excellence for her community work. Sheryl is a past Boston Bar Association Public Interest Leadership Program Fellow.
