If you find yourself advising your clients on employment and severance agreements, this spotlight program is a must!

Learn what questions you should be asking your client and what documents you should be reviewing in order to draft and/or negotiate the agreement your client wants or needs.

After this seminar, attendees will have a better understanding of employment and severance agreements for their clients (companies or mid to upper level executives), including standard provisions, special equity, compensation, benefits, restrictive covenants, and change of control provisions, and tax and 409A issues.

Specific Topics:

Understanding your clients' goals

Negotiating terms and conditions (standard agreement provisions, special provisions and tax issues)

Drafting documents that incorporate terms and conditions negotiated

When to retain assistance of tax benefits and corporate attorneys
