

KROKIDAS & BLUESTEIN LLP
PRESS RELEASE

Contact: Jaclyn White, Marketing Coordinator
jwhite@kb-law.com
617-482-7211

Krokidas & Bluestein Attorney participates in the Boston Bar Association's Law Day in the Schools Program

Krokidas & Bluestein Attorney Judith Kim participated in this year's Boston Bar Association Law Day in the Schools Program. Judith was joined by Nate Koslof, an attorney from Sullivan & Worcester, at the William J. Ostiguy High School in Downtown Boston. Each year the BBA selects a topic for local attorneys to present in area schools to make a positive connection with students about the legal system. This year the BBA volunteers presented the topic of Miranda rights to students, reviewing its origins, and summarizing the fundamental rights that it protects. To read the full article: <https://www.bostonglobe.com/metro/2016/06/05/bar-association-teaching-kids-about-their-rights-during-police-encounters/IDr6Casxt8s0gXznmCzAGP/story.html>